

National Aeronautics and Space Administration

Join us for a special film that presents a powerful argument for why the global water crisis is a paramount issue facing our world in this century.

Monday, April 22, 2013

7:00 p.m.

Jet Propulsion Laboratory

Von Kármán Auditorium

A Q&A session will follow the film with special guest Dr. Jay Famiglietti, a world-renowned expert on water resources and Director of the UC Center for Hydrological Modeling.

Seating is limited. For reservations, visit:
<http://www.eventbrite.com/org/3567973197>

This free event is open to the public.

LAST CALL AT THE OASIS presents a powerful argument for why the global water crisis is a paramount issue facing our world in this century. Illuminating the vital role water plays in our lives, exposing the defects in the current system and depicting communities already struggling with its ill effects, the film features activist Erin Brockovich and such distinguished experts as Peter Gleick, Alex Prud'homme, Jay Famiglietti and Robert Glennon.

