

Higher Education

NASA Science Mission Design Schools

Requirements for Partial Financial Support

Participants who complete the course and meet the following requirements may receive a $1,700 travel/housing allowance paid on the final day of the course at JPL. To be eligible, participants must:

- Receive full selection status for participation in the program.
- Attend the entirety of the course (12 weeks) and participate in the culminating week onsite at JPL.
- Live within the U.S. from the time your application is submitted through the entirety of the course.
- Live outside a 50-mile radius of JPL.
- Request financial support in your application.

Civil servants, students with civil servant status, employees of NASA contractors are not eligible for travel/housing allowance.

Note: Taxes will be deducted from the full amount when you receive your payment.